

JEANNINE KENNEY

Jeannine is a partner in the law firm Hausfeld LLP. Her practice focuses primarily on private enforcement of federal and state antitrust laws

Jeannine is adept and experienced in managing all aspects and phases of eDiscovery. She routinely navigates detailed, complex and contentious ESI issues from dispute to resolution, including briefing and arguing e-discovery motions when necessary. Jeannine is a member of the Sedona Conference's Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production where she serves as speaker and a member of various brainstorming and drafting committees and is a Chambers Band 4-ranked specialist in E-Discovery and Information Governance. Jeannine counsels Hausfeld's litigation teams and outside attorneys on negotiation strategies relating to preservation, search, and production of ESI in cases often involving dozens of defendants, negotiates ESI search terms, technology assisted review (predictive coding) methodologies, and database disclosures and productions.
